

I am a businessman located in New York State. I am against any more regulations that are spurred by private interest groups that are solely for their profits and not for the good of the people. XM radio provides a wonderful format for those of us that want to get away from the everyday type radio programing. I urge you to please let well enough alone.